

Please have fun jumping into and playing in our leaf piles!

Play is a very important part of childhood development. In fact, it's one of the five early literacy skills kids need to become lifelong readers.
It's also incredibly fun for both kids and their parents (who don't have to re-rake the leaves - we'll do that).